

Ted Yamamori
– global mission
leader, professor,
businessman –
will challenge our understanding of business and the Great Commission.

Mark your calendar!

Christians & Global Workplace Mission

Thursday, June 7, 7:00 - 9:30 PM
Western Seminary, Johnson Chapel

Ted Yamamori has lived out his passion for redeeming souls and providing help in a sin-wrecked world during his 17 years as president of Food For the Hungry. He is a global leader in the field of holistic missions, and his message challenges other business leaders to lay hold of their place in the global mission field.

Open to the Public!

Tetsunao "Ted" Yamamori

Education:

BA – Northwest Christian College ('62);
BD – Texas Christian University ('64);
MA Sociology – Texas Christian University ('65);
Ph.D. – Sociology of Religion – Duke University ('70)

Ministry Experience: President Emeritus, Food For the Hungry; Current President, Global HMR, Inc.; Senior Associate for Holistic Ministries and International Director, Lausanne Committee for World Evangelization

Written Works: Author, co-author, and editor of over 20 books, including On Kingdom Business: How Holistic Entrepreneurs Are Transforming World Missions.

WESTERN SEMINARY

Rooted. Reaching. Real.

5511 SE HAWTHORNE BLVD.
PORTLAND, OR 97215

503.517.1800
1.877.517.1800
portland@westernseminary.edu
www.westernseminary.edu